Swansea Business News

(3 August) A spokesperson for Riester's Food Markets announced yesterday that it will open five new stores over the next two years, starting with one in down town Swansea this December.—[1]—. The company, known for its reasonable prices, will next open a Liverpool store in May. —[2]—. The location of the final store has not yet been determined.

The number of Riester's locations has certainly been growing rapidly throughout the U.K. Shoppers seem pleased with the wide selection of items that include packaged goods, fresh produce, and hot ready-made meals. According to Donald Chapworth, director of marketing, the latter are particularly popular with working parents. —[3]—. “Many of these customers in particular have limited time to cook but still want their families to eat wholesome food,” says Chapworth. Last March Riester's hired chef Gabriella Pierangeli, famed for her London restaurant Gabriella's on Second, to craft their signature home-style dishes.—[4]—
